Question

'In 2008, an estimated 10.7 million tonnes of packaging waste was disposed of in the UK (Department of Environment, Food and Rural Affairs, 2008). If this continues, the environmental impact could be catastrophic.'

Discuss the problems associated with disposing of large amounts of waste, then identify different ways of reducing the amounts of waste people produce.

In your essay, you should refer to a number of resources and can include your own ideas on this topic. (Use information/evidence from the three websites provided). Try to provide a list of references at the end.

The essay should be approximately 250-350 words.
